3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,793 sqft
Residential on 4 Acres

N/A, Highland, NY

Set on a site with fantastic views of the Schawangunk Mountains sits a multi-building family compound waiting for it's next owners. Imagination and TLC are needed for this home's next chapter. The 1860 3 bedroom and two bath wood and stone main house with an all weather porch next to an eat in kitchen, has views that are memorable. Sunsets are forever overlooking apple orchards and a golf course. Apple trees, a pond, a three car garage with two horse stalls, a guest house/garage with a possible apartment above, more views and a tree lined entrance path from an old mansion that was on the included lot next door make for a future of fun. The main house has been occupied by the same owner for over 6 decades. Everything works in the home but is in need of updating.. A giant stone fireplace wall in the 40 foot living room is ready for many cozy evenings. The house is vacant and the owners want to sell it "as is". It's on 3.6 acres with views from every window. There is ample room for anything you want. This property consists of the home, 3 car garage with 2 horse stalls, a second building with an apartment upstairs and a 1 car garage under. Many apple trees, a small pond and fantastic views of the "Gunks" and golf course. Enclosed porch is 19'5 x 9'3. Needs work. Being sold "as is".
