Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Kingston, NY

This Pristine Mid Century Home with great curb appeal located in Uptown Kingston is just a few short blocks from the Historic Stockade Area with great Restaurants, Shops, Stone Homes and Museums. All Walkable! For starters you have a lovely old fashioned front porch with solid wood decking to greet the neighbors. An original front door welcomes you into a nice sized living room with an arched entry into a formal dining room. There are beautiful original hardwood floors throughout most of this home. The radiant heat in the floors keeps this home evenly heated and comfortable during the colder months. The adjacent eat-in kitchen with custom cabinets features Corian Counters, under cabinet lighting, tiled backsplash, pull out drawers and a pantry space. A back french door takes you to a glassed enclosed porch with a vaulted pine ceiling overlooking a beautifully landscaped private fenced yard and attractive over sized one car garage with automatic door. And that's not all! This home has central air, a whole house generator, a high efficiency gas boiler with 3 zones, Solar panels owned outright and the entire house has been reinsulated. Both the walk up attic and basement are immaculate giving you plenty of clean storage room as well. Don't miss out on this turn key home! Walk to Forsyth Park right up the road. Just 2 hours out of NYC with the Thruway entrance and Trailways bus station right Uptown. * Please note the chandelier in the dining room does not stay.
