This renovated Victorian built in 1890 sits on a quiet one way street in Kingston's Historic Waterfront District. Enjoy all the modern conveniences and energy efficient updates in 1700 square feet of open living space. Enter from Pierpont into a heated sunroom with large windows. Pass through the french front door to the living room with beautifully restored original oak hardwood flooring. This large gathering space connects to an open kitchen with new appliances and quartz countertops. The long dining room can seat a large dinner party, and the bar height counter top is a great place to grab a beverage and socialize. Exposed brick has been preserved throughout, adding visual texture and warmth to the space. Off of the dining room, enter the serene and sophisticated master bedroom. The master bath is complete with floating vanity and sparkling porcelain floor tiles. A smart half bath and laundry closet are also conveniently located on the first floor. Follow the antique balustrade upstairs to three bedrooms and a second full bathroom. Configure these rooms for sleeping, home office or creative space. Downstairs the living room opens onto a generous porch with original decorative cornice millwork, the perfect location to enjoy your morning coffee. With an uncharacteristically large yard for the neighborhood, opportunities abound for outdoor entertaining. A sanctuary in the heart of the Rondout, this home is walkable to Kingston's best bars, restaurants and
